Announcements

Welcome: What a joy it is to have you with us here today! We are excited about what the Lord is doing among us and hope you sense the Lord's love and grace as you fellowship with our church family.

2017 Nominating Committee: This is the 2nd reading and vote. The ministry serving positions run from July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018.

Note: please be reminded that our Yelm Seventh-day Adventist Church will be closed on June 17th and 24th for camp meeting; there will be no church services on those 2 Sabbaths. Also, our church office will be closed from June 12th – 23rd. Thank you!

Vice President of Education: Washington Conference is pleased to introduce Craig Mattson as our new vice president for education. Mattson is no stranger to the Pacific Northwest and specifically Washington Conference. He most recently served as principal of Northwest Christian School in Puyallup. He is also a graduate of Auburn Adventist Academy.

Mattson earned a Master of Arts in Teaching from Andrews University in 2009 and a Bachelor of Science in Behavior Sciences from Newbold College in 2003. Prior to leading Northwest Christian School for five years, Mattson served as principal and grades 9/10 teacher at Tulsa Adventist Academy in Oklahoma. Mattson will be transitioning in July into his new role in working with the Washington Conference Office of Education team.

Vice President of Administration: After a careful and lengthy process of potential candidates the Executive Committee has elected Elder Craig Carr to serve as the new Vice President of Administration for the Washington Conference. Craig is currently the Ministerial Director of the Rocky Mountain Conference. He has a degree in Business with a business management and human resources emphasis. He has worked in the business world prior to returning to seminary to complete the Masters in Divinity. He has completed a Doctoral degree from Denver Seminary. Prior to serving as ministerial director Craig served as a pastor in a number of different churches with the most recent being the Boulder church in Colorado.

See You Soon at #WACampMeeting! Camping among friends. Attending spiritually-enriching meetings. Joining conversations and making new friends. Finding faith-growing books and resources. Engaging activities for children and youth. This is camp meeting: a whole family spiritual growth experience! See more details in the Digital Program Guide! Reserve your lodging! This year, u-pitch tent sites are free! Make your reservations (for a RV site, conference tent, u-pitch tent, or dorm room) at washingtonconference.org/campmeeting!

Duty Schedule: to all Adult Sabbath School teachers, Superintendents, Deacons, Greeters, and all who signed up for Worship service duties, the schedule for the next 3 months is ready and is out in the foyer, please don't forget to take a copy so that you'll be aware of your duty on the first Sabbath of July. Any questions please contact Lua Uelese. Thank you!
